Tribesman 2005
Volume 99*

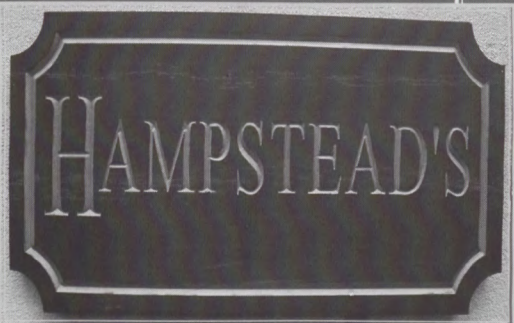

PIECES

"All the broken and dislocated pieces of the universe—people and things, animals and atoms—get properly fixed and fit together in vibrant harmonies, all because of his death, his blood that poured down from the Cross."

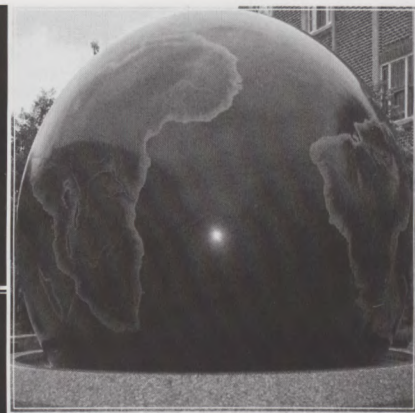

*Colossians 1:20
The Message*

The Clock Tower on top of Nelson Hall is one of Mississippi College's most distinguishable emblems. Its rustic look reminds students of the many students and faculty that have passed through the campus of Mississippi College. It is these memories that piece together the past with present and future.

Hampstead's, Mississippi College's on-campus restaurant, serves as a hangout for all MC students. It serves Mississippi College students well when they aren't in the mood for cafeteria food. Hampstead's quickly becomes a very important piece of each student's Mississippi College experience.

The Kugel, donated by former Mississippi College President Howell W. Todd, is an important piece of the Mississippi College campus. It serves as a constant reminder that even though we are but one small town on the map, we have a global calling to bring the good news of Christ to all of mankind.

Puzzles can be fun, exciting, and frustrating all at the same time. A single piece alone might look odd and confusing, but when placed with the other pieces in the correct order it is a magnificent picture for all to see. Mississippi College is a puzzle that has been in the making for many years and new pieces are being added with each memory made. Each student, faculty-staff member, organization, and campus building makes up a piece of the puzzle. Some pieces are worn and tattered, for they are the legacies left from alumni of years past. For people, we are like a lost puzzle piece that is not very beautiful, but when Christ enters our lives, we become a part of a "vibrant harmony" for all the world to see. It has been our goal to capture and preserve the puzzle pieces of Mississippi College for students to see, reminisce about, and become a part of the ever-growing puzzle for years to come.

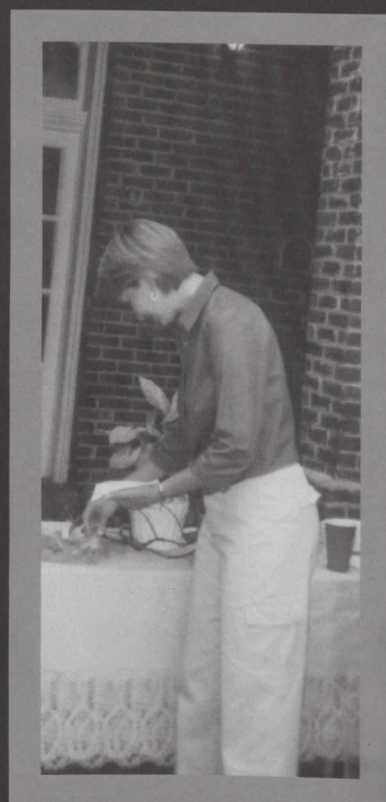

Jonathan Campbell and Callee Cockrell
Tribesman Editor and Assistant Editor

The Piazza is a piece of the puzzle where students enjoy food from Hampstead's, attend occasional concerts, study, or just hangout with friends.

Dedication

Below: Mr. Donoso Escobar, Ms. Angela Gaddis, Ms. Janice Sandefur, Ms. Mary Johnston, and Ms. Sue Farmer pose for a departmental shot.

The 2005 Tribesman staff wishes to dedicate the yearbook to a woman who is an important piece of the puzzle here at Mississippi College. Ms. Angela Gaddis has been a professor in the Sociology/Social Work Department for thirteen years. Her goal in teaching is: "To help students expand their ideas and gain new knowledge that they can apply to their lives."

Ms. Gaddis lives in Brandon with her husband Bill and her son Andrew. She received her Bachelor of Social Work from the University of Mississippi and her Master of Social Work from the University of Southern Mississippi. She is also a Licensed Clinical Social Worker and is currently working on her Doctorate of Social Work at the University of Alabama.

Ms. Gaddis loves her career in Social Work. She explains how she felt a call into it when she read how Jesus ministered. Ms. Gaddis is an active member of Pinelake Baptist Church, where she and her husband lead a children's Sunday school class together.

As a token of our appreciation, we proudly dedicate the 2004-2005 Tribesman to Ms. Angela Gaddis.

*Jennifer Wyckoff
Miss Mississippi College*

Jennifer Rose Wyckoff was born on October 8, 1983 to Soony Wyckoff and the late Neal Wyckoff. She currently resides in Locust Grove, Oklahoma. As a high school student, Jennifer visited Mississippi College and fell in love with the people she encountered here. She said, "I could not deny myself the opportunity to study in such a wonderful and beautiful environment. Not once have I ever regretted my decision to attend Mississippi College." She is now active in many aspects of the college experience here at Mississippi College. Does she like Mississippi College? Yes, and for the same reason she came to Mississippi College, the people. "My relationships with some of the people on this campus are truly gifts from God; they have made my life so much better and enjoyable," she states.

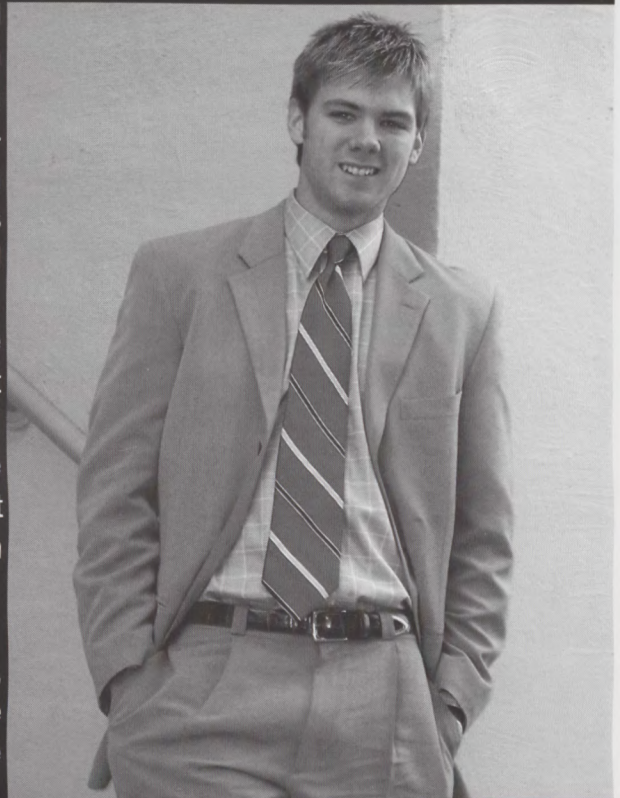

Jennifer leaves a legacy behind as Miss Mississippi College, but she would also like to leave a message to those who come behind her: "You have one of the most amazing privileges to be a student here at Mississippi College. You are privileged because you are receiving a quality education in academics and in life as well. Take full advantage of your college career because you will experience lessons and people unlike that of anywhere else."

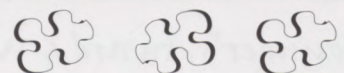

Mississippi College

William Griffin Lewis was born on December 16, 1982 to Howard and Betsy Lewis. He currently resides in Kosciusko, Mississippi. When he chose to attend Mississippi College, he had no idea just how much it would change his life. "Not only has MC taught me many things academically, but more than that, it has taught me invaluable lessons in life." Griffin believes that friendship is one of the most amazing ways that God has chosen to show us His love. Griffin also believes God has lavished that love on him through the family of Mississippi College. "Friends, true friends, like the ones I am blessed with, have made me who I am and have given me a joy that can only be found in the heart of a man who knows he is loved. Paul said it best in Philippians 1:3, 'I thank my God upon every remembrance of you.' I will forever praise my God for blessing me with what are now just memories of my short time here at Mississippi College. Mississippi College has been much more than a college to me...it's home!"

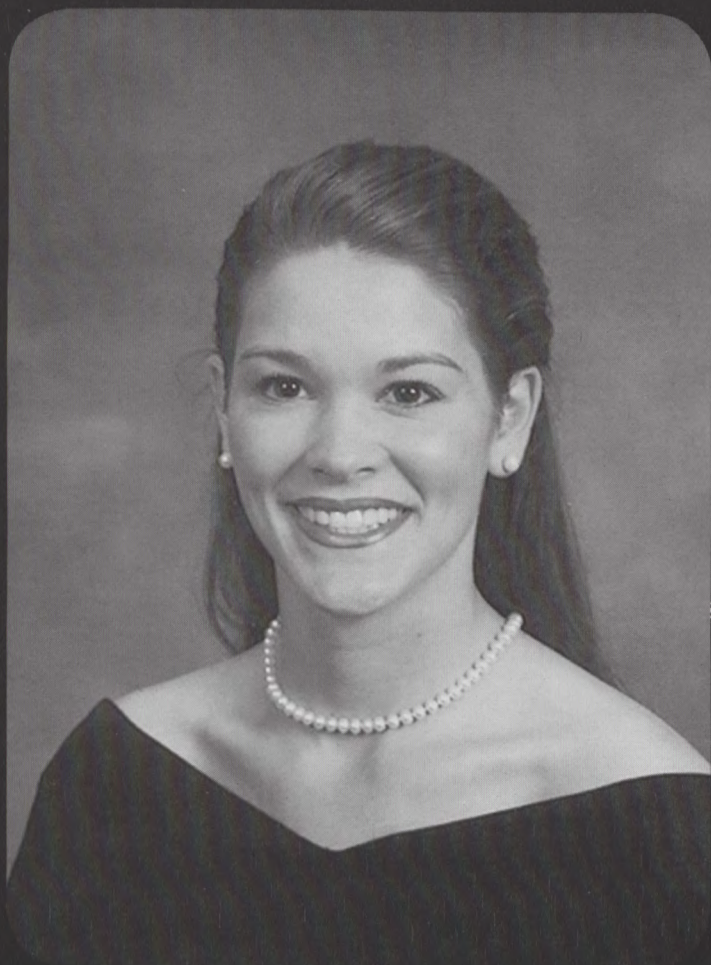

As a final farewell to those who remain at Mississippi College, and a word of advice to those yet to come, Griffin states, "I encourage you to treasure every moment, appreciate the good and learn from the bad, invest in people, and don't be afraid to be vulnerable for love."

Griffin Lewis
Mr. Mississippi College

Kristin Meeks and Heather Larsen celebrate a strike during a night of bowling sponsored by the Residence Life staff of New Women's and Chrestman halls.

Markita Ellis, Tamocan Coleman, Karen Herman, Melloney Hernton, Chanelle Smith, and Andreal Nicholas show their support for the MC Choctaw Basketball Teams. Sports is just one venue of student life at Mississippi College.

STUDENT LIFE

Shannon Randle and Heidi Walton paint an assignment for an art class.

Jeana Elizondo collects money at the BSU Hair-A-Thon

Patrick Veal, Marcus Evans, Shedrick Kirk, Carlos Wells, and Diaran Holliday chill outside of the cafe.

Student life at Mississippi College is the piece of the puzzle which encompasses it all. From reluctantly attending class to hanging out with friends at Wal-Mart, students at MC find many ways to occupy their time. Student life is the piece of the puzzle which pulls every aspect of life at Mississippi College together to give the student the ultimate college experience. This experience provides memories for a lifetime.

Juan Moncivais chows his way down to first place during the annual Hoop-N-Holla twinkie eating competition sponsored by the SGA.

Get This Party Started

Above: Holly Kliesch of Swan-nanoa Social Tribe helps some Fresh-man girls move into Lattimer-Webb. Right: Robert Carraway shows his strength as he moves his tv into his New Men's Residence Hall room.

Left: Crystal Coghlan and Jamie Holloway assist Niki Carpenter as she checks in. Below: Hitesh Goel fills out his Residence Life forms in the lobby of Chrestman.

Here I am to Worship

Erin Hinton, Erin Alford, Kameron Russell, Sarah Bidy, and Beth Brumbaugh join together as friends to pray because where two or more are gathered in the name of the Lord, there He is also.

Each Tuesday night, students gather at First Baptist Clinton to take part in the Baptist Student Union's worship service, "Gathering."

Right: Kate Boudreaux makes a joyful noise.

A group of ministerial students pose as the disciples of Jesus to "complete" the statue in the Quad. The cast includes Reed Nunnelee as Matthew, Brian Boiko as James, the son of Alphaeus, Micheal Wright as Phillip, Jake Waits as Judas Iscariot, Joseph Kuykendall as Simon, J.J. Yount as Thomas, Tadd Walker as Thaddeus, Bryan Cirlot as James, the son of Zebedee, Michael Dukes as Andrew, and Trent Sligh as Bartholomew. The figures portrayed in the statue are Simon Peter, John the Beloved, and Jesus.

Below: Vickie Powe silently prays between classes.

Students are not only involved in spiritual activities on campus, but off-campus as well. Many Mississippi College students are part of the college choir known as Won by One at Morrison Heights Baptist Church. Each year the choir goes on a tour and performs. This year they will be traveling to Orlando, FL to premiere their musical.

I WANT TO GET AWAY

Savannah Guyton multitasks by shopping and talking on her cellphone.

Civitan Pledge Kyle Cassagne is shown beating the Choctaw drum. This is done each year from the end of follies to the beginning of the game.

Scotty Elliot (6) and Eddie Travis (49) call the toss at the 2004 Homecoming game against the Louisiana College Wildcats.

The Naturals showcase their talent for a large family, friends, and alumni during Homecoming.

It's Now Or Never

Below: Carrie Jones and Blake Chance converse while walking through the Quad.

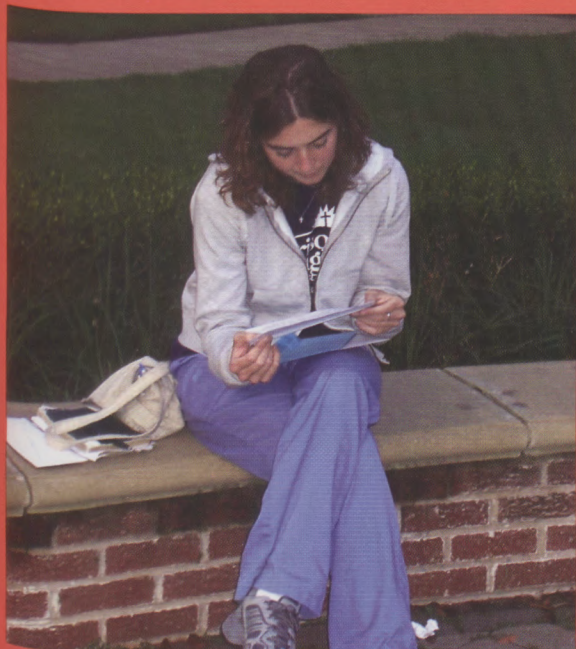

Anastasia Deeter and Lauren Fuselier sit on the steps of the Piazza after supper and talk about their day.

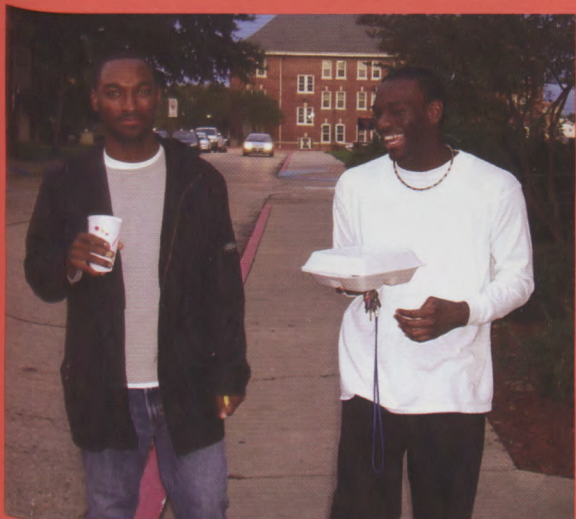

Christian Studies majors, J.J. Yount and Matt Martin goof off for the camera while playing Ultimate Frisbee in the Quad after classes one afternoon.

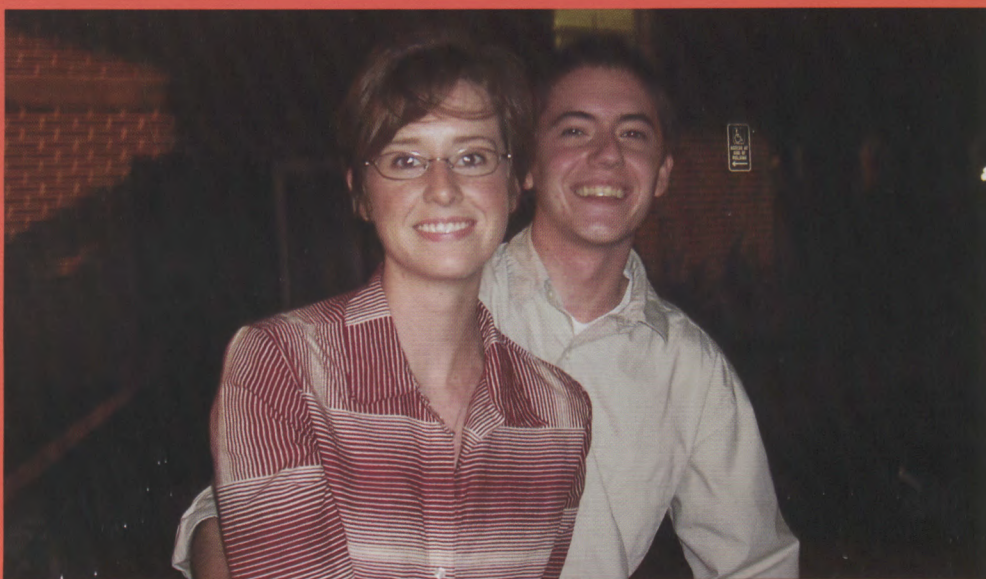

Marcy Lancaster sits by the Kugel reading her mail. Mail, other than campus reminders, is a much welcomed, although scarce, treat for students.

Michael Johnson and Michael Anderson walk back to their dorm after getting food from the food court.

Tribesman Editor, Jonathan Campbell, and fiancé Courtney Johnson take a break from strenuous deadlines and relax outside on a park bench.

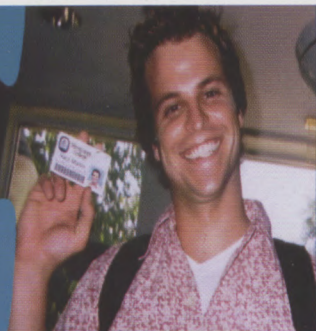

Joe Spears, Seth Compton, Justin Williamson, and Thomas Brame enjoy the slam dunk contest at Hoop-N-Holla.

The Tribesman staff catches Beth Bilbro on camera before a home game tossing the football around. Beth serves as watergirl for the MC Choctaw Football team.

Meagan Lemly, Sarah Biddy, Rachel Bateman, and Christinann Ray show excitement and support for the Underdaws intramural flag football team. Intramural games provide one way for students to hang out together and just have a good time.

PEOPLE

Damaris Rivera and Lauren McCall enjoy lunch together outside the cafeteria.

Stephen McDevitt and Lauren Bolton spend time together on the swings.

Jonathan "Bear" Coleman and Sheila Harrigill enjoy an afternoon together.

People make Mississippi College the unique university it is. They are the pieces of the puzzle for which MC exists. The students bring life to this beautiful, historical campus. While at MC, students make many friends they will cherish throughout their entire lives. Each student, an unique piece of the puzzle, constitutes an important part of the entire picture we proudly and collectively call Mississippi College.

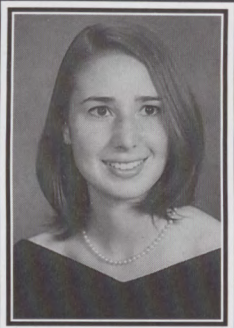

Trent Sligh strolls across the quad on an Autumn day. Many students enjoy hanging out on the quad. On any given day, one may see students studying, relaxing, or even playing ultimate frisbee.

FACULTY & STAFF

Dr. Craig Young directs the MC Choctaw Band enthusiastically.

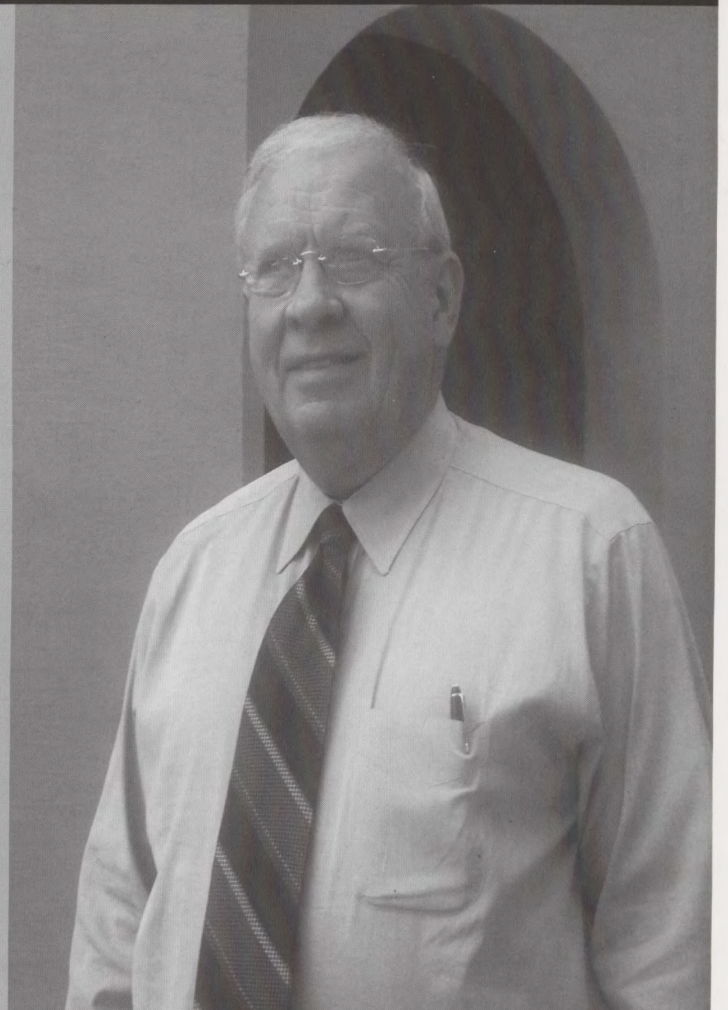

Shea Elkins, the School of Business secretary, is hard at work.

Dr. Phyllis Seawright guides two students through their practice for an upcoming performance.

Faculty and staff are an invaluable piece of the puzzle here at MC. For without them, there could be no college and no learning. They touch the lives of each and every student, while each student takes a piece of each faculty and staff member with them into the rest of their lives. From the grounds crew to the professor, each faculty and staff member greatly impact the lives of others here at MC.

Dr. Lee Royce

Mississippi College's 19th President

Welcome to the 2004-2005 edition of the Mississippi College Tribesman. I hope this book will become a treasured repository of memories for you for years to come. In its pages, you will see the Mississippi College family: students, faculty, and staff.

Mississippi College and the family we represent have been a long time in the making. As the oldest college in our state, founded in 1826, we have long been engaged in the mission of academic excellence and Christian witness.

This mission creates a unique place and experience, one that we should all seek to preserve.

I hope, as you look through the pages of this yearbook, you will reflect on the many persons, programs, buildings, and even ideas that go into making Mississippi College such a special place. Also, reflect on the persons who mean so much to you and those you have had a positive influence on. Think about the programs that have empowered your college life and beyond. Revisit the many sites on campus that have helped shape your college experience, and, of course, recommit yourself to the founding ideals of Mississippi College--the ideals of academic excellence and commitment to the cause of Christ.

Mississippi College, a very old work in progress, prospers and endures through the blessings of God. We treasure your life, a piece of the Mississippi College family, and hope that this yearbook will always help you reconnect to your life at Mississippi College.

Justin Payne makes a jump during track practice one afternoon.

Mathew Manning slows down to a jog while running around the track.

Rebecca Crane watches as her disk soars through the air.

Bridget Foreman pushes herself towards the finish line at a track meet.

Alumni Pool

Above: Water Volleyball was a new class added to this year's schedule. This class is exciting, energizing, and promotes team cooperation.

The Water Walking class helps tone muscles better than just walking on land.

Liquid Abs enhance the shape and definition of abdominal muscles.

Letter From the Editors

Wow! All of the hard work, sleepless nights, and stress have come to an end. We are extremely proud of the yearbook you now hold in your hands. As the editors, we made every attempt to capture the memories in ways that we can all be proud of. We would like to thank the Publication Council for the honor and responsibility of publishing this book. Thank-you for holding us to the high standards that MC is known for.

Tribesman staff members, thank-you for your endless dedication to making this book all that it has become. You have truly been the best yearbook staff ever. Thank-you to the students who were not on staff, but contributed greatly to the yearbook by giving your pictures and time. Mrs. Sandra Parks, you will never know how much help you have been to us. From small reminders of everything is going to be alright to your fresh baked goodies for the late night deadlines, you have been the perfect adviser. To our wonderful communications department secretary, Ms. Vicki Williams, we are forever indebted to all your behind the scenes help. You have always been there to give us that encouraging word and answer our unending questions.

As we close out what seemed would be an endless task, we would like to leave the MC family a message: Stay strong and never give up. God has a purpose for each member of our MC family. We are all part of God's infinite design we call life. Sometimes life is hard and seems unfair, but as we gaze into eternity, may we thrive to see that God receives glory and honor in all our circumstances, even the bad ones. It is through His son, Jesus Christ, that we all become "Pieces."
